

The Resort

West Branch Angler is nestled in a sprawling 300-acre park like setting along a 2-mile private section of the West Branch of the Delaware River. Known as the "Gateway to the Catskills", the surrounding mountain scenery and grounds are marvelous.

Bigger and better than ever the West Branch Angler has been completely renovated for 2007. With 12 new cabins and many new amenities such as wireless internet access, new pavilion and a workout facility. Whether your fly fishing on the East's most productive wild trout tailwater fishery, shooting a round of sporting clays, or a riverside hike on one of our groomed trails. It's no wonder that the West Branch Angler is known as "The Premier Outdoor Destination in the East", located only a few hours from the major metros of the Northeast.

Upscale Log Cabin Accommodations

The CEO Cabins

The CEO cabins are nestled in a private pine forest and only feet from the river offering unparalleled river views, seclusion and privacy. With 3 bedrooms and 2 baths these spacious 1800 sq.ft log homes can comfortably sleep 6. Perfect for families and small groups the CEO cabins are the finest accommodations in the area. Each cabin has a modern kitchen complete with all of the comforts of home. The living room areas sport high definition television, Italian leather furniture, and river stone fireplace. You can relax on the porch while watching wild trout rise only feet away. Sleeping arrangements include a king bed in the upstairs master bedroom, and 2 single beds in each of the downstairs bedrooms as well as a futon in the loft.

River Run Restaurant & Trout Skellar Pub

The River Run Restaurant has become the center point of many of the activities at the West Branch Angler. We offer our guests the best in great cuisine in a casual atmosphere. Enjoy fine dining in an upscale dining room yet with an informal "outdoors" ambiance. Our torch lit canopied deck over looking the resort is a perfect alternative to indoor dining. Ask for deck seating in our custom made "Swing Tables". Eating outside on a summer night while enjoying a mountain setting can only be described as spectacular.

Our great lower level pub the Trout Skellar sports a 300 gallon fish tank, cherry wood bar, booths, field stone fireplace, pool table, and sports TV. The atmosphere is perfect to talk over the days adventures while enjoying your favorite drink, bar foods or a full dinner. Ask about our all inclusive meal plans.

Professionaly Guided Fly Fishing, Upland Bird Hunting & Sporting Clays

Our experienced Orvis™ endorsed river guides are the best of the best on the Delaware River System. We take great pride in our pro staff as they are the key to our success. Our Guides are not only knowledgeable fly fishermen, they are courteous, friendly, hard workers who want you to catch fish. In other words they are real pros!

We offer both float and wade trips as well as excellent fly fishing instruction. Most experienced fly fishers will rarely go to a river they have never fished before without booking a guide. The Wild Trout here in the Delaware River System will challenge even the best fly fisher, so let us provide you with a West Branch Angler pro guide who will make your very valuable fly fishing time as totally productive as conditions will allow. Make that call soon to reserve your West Branch Angler Orvis™ Endorsed pro guide!

Our shooting preserve at the West Branch Resort offers pheasant and chukar partridge hunts through a diversity of cover and habitat ranging from open fields to overgrown orchards. Much of our resort grounds have groomed trails through fairly level countryside. Wild ruffed grouse and American woodcock are available for the sportsman looking for the added challenge in both quarry and terrain.

Our sporting clays course was designed by John Higgins to provide you 12 fully automatic stations in true grouse coverts. You'll shoot at bounding rabbits, wood ducks and driven pheas-ants and other realistic game targets designed to challenge the expert, improve the novice and provide the wing shooter the realistic angles, speeds and backgrounds found in the field. Call to set up your shooting fun at the West Branch Resort!
